Section A: Sales Model by Serial Number

Use Section A to identify the Model Name when you know the serial number. Country of origin and approximate first year shipped for each beginning number is listed, if available.

NOTE: The serial numbers in this section appear in ALPHANUMERIC order (A-Z first and then 0-9). They are sorted on the letter that is in the third position first (39B00001), then sorted by the character in position number one (4AB00001) and then by the character in position number two (4AB00001). The following examples are sorted in order as they would appear in the book.

Serial Number	Model Name	Source	Approx. Year Shipped
39A00001	D4C Track-type Tractor	US
39B00001	D326F Industrial Engine	US
4AB00001	D7H Track-type Tractor	J
43B00001	D375D Industrial Engine	US
3GC00001	206 Wheel-type Excavator	G	1984
45C00001	215B Excavator (SA)	US	1984
57Y0000	215 Excavator	BE	1981-83

Use the following list to identify the country of origin of a particular machine when you know the serial number.

CODE	COUNTRY OF ORIGIN	CODE	COUNTRY OF ORIGIN
AU	Australia	I	Japan
BE	Belgium	K	Korea
BR	Brazil	M	Mexico
C	Canada	MI	Military
F	Finland	N	Norway
FR	France	S	Sweden
G	Germany	UK	United Kingdom
GL	Glasgow	US	United States
IN	Indonesia

Use the following list to identify the manufacturing plant of a product when you know the engineering model and version.

Version	Manufacturing Facility	Version	Manufacturing Facility
-	U.S.A.	JJ	Conek S.A. de C.V.
AL	CMRSA Rantigny	JS	PT Natra Raya

Section B: Serial Number by Sales Model

Use Section B to identify the beginning serial number and country of origin of a particular product when you know the sales model.

Example:

Sales Model	Description	Beginning Serial Number	Source
Track Loader
955C	Direct Drive	12A00001	USA
977K	Turbo	46H00001	USA
977K	Power Shift	76H00001	Japan
977L	Turbo	11K03919	USA
977L	Power Shift	48J00586	UK
977L	Power Shift	70J01303	Japan

Section C: Equivalent Serial Numbers

Several models of machines built in the United States by Caterpillar Inc. are also built by Caterpillar subsidiaries in other countries. Those built by the subsidiaries are substantially the same machines as built by the parent company and carry the same sales model designation. They are, however, identified by a different series of serial numbers.

Section C lists beginning number and, if it has a comparable model that is manufactured outside the USA, all those equivalent serial numbers.

Section D: Engine Model and Serial Number by Machine

Use Section D to identify the engines and families of engines used in specific vehicles and machines.

Section E: Vehicle / Machine Serial Number by Engine Model

Section E shows all vehicular and machine engines and the specific vehicles in which they were installed.

Product Support Literature for Military Machines

Caterpillar receives inquiries from dealers concerning the availability of Parts Books, Service Manuals and Operation & Maintenance Guides covering military surplus machines purchased from the U.S. Government. Caterpillar does not offer Government product support literature for these machines. We do offer literature for commercial machines that may be similar.

The following list is provided to assist dealer personnel in obtaining repair and parts information for Caterpillar products that are built to government specifications and have Military serial numbers. The Commercial Reference Column will give information on Commercial products that are similar to the Military version.

For specific questions call Caterpillar Defense & Federal Products Department: Alan Paden at (309) 578-3295, Kevin Kyle at (309) 578-4562, or Todd Bong at (309) 578-4288.
